Pff, Jae-suk and Jung-kook block the door from the other side, so they come spilling out of Door B, preempting Gary's own entrance. Broadcast on November 17, 2013 We pick up with last week's hide-and-seek game against idol group EXO. But his wall height is a dead giveaway, and gets promptly caught by Lohan Hec, the shot is doubly funny through Kwang-soo's shaky vantage point. Guessing that hiding isn't a safe tactic anymore, Kwang-soo switches places with his VI. Then he distributes the official LA Dodgers hats he prepared for everyone, and even autographs them.

HA, Jae-suk hilariously autographs Kwang-soo's hat instead. It's time for the cast to wrap up the fall with one more trip before winter comes, and a bit of fun before next week's big game. But keeping an eye on the game is no easy task when there's a pretty and snarky idol around, especially when everyone else is trying to get them together.

The other four (Jae-suk, Ji-hyo, Jung-kook, and Gary) are told to choose between two doors/panels, and only Gary chose Door B.

I actually like how surprisingly bright and cheery the EXO members are even in the face of elimination, like how Lay pleads with Jae-suk to let him go 'cause he's a big fan of his (it doesn't work). Hyun-jin tries to quietly slip past the madress, but then Suk-jin accidentally hits his face. Needless to say, they're all excited to see him, including Gary, who's still "hidden" behind his door. Now it's time to (finally) meet the guest of the hour: Ryu Hyun-jin, whose appearance is met with chaotic greetings.

They seem to come out as victims today, to which Jo PD pleases them, all. Sure, go ahead and try. Jae-suk looks mighty confident, but it's Spence when he chooses (don't think I didn't notice that backstage you gave Ji-hyo), to Jae-suk's surprise. They grow jealous of Spunkoer and Jae-suk's pseudo-dramatic entrance and jump at the chance to try it out themselves. It takes all of two seconds before the members cast a potential headline between our guests, but wait—weren't you a Ji-hyo fanboy, Hyun-jin? Hyun-jin? Hyun-jin can only guffaw nervously as they exchange greetings with the schoolyard teasing in the background. And yes, I totally laughed when Jo PD told Gary to go back inside and wait. That effectively demystifies any dramatics, and Jae-suk puts the third tier Betrosaj Trio in their place, joking that they'll only get someone when the others are off duty. When the cast gathers together again, both Ji-hyo and Jung-kook are in possession of a bushel (the latter stole it from Haha earlier). As EXO prepares to hunt down the cast, Kwang-soo pretends to be a mannequin to stir the idea that nobody will notice if you hide in plain sight! Kcal bounces back to his former hiding place thinking that no one would be hiding there, right? The truth: Suk-jin behind some bushes and eliminates him, c'mon! I love!
